WVHA Fall Conference, in Jackson's Mill, Weston, WV traditionally includes workshops and classes from the wide spectrum of herb and medicinal plant people, herbalists, protectors, teachers, growers, writers, seed collectors, herbal crafts people, and all who celebrate our native and medicinal herbs. Come connect with each other and learn from herbal mentors and teachers. Our Keynote speaker this year is Susun Weed. We give priority for vendors, speakers and volunteers first to members, then to non-members. Non-members may attend the conference without joining.
